With the inclusion of ten new Member States in the European Union's single market on May 1st 2004, this English version of the VAT intra-Community Guide becomes a vital source of reference for all the commercial actors of the intra-Community scene. It describes and simplifies the various and different trade transactions (intra-Community deliveries and acquisitions, transfers, distance sales, new means of transports, assembly, second-hand goods, etc.) and gives step by step practical instructions on filling out and filing VAT returns (INTRASTAT/DEB : what lines to fill out, what information to include.). The VAT intra-Community Guide also includes specific case examples as well as pertinent advice from the authors, experts in the field of VAT and familiar with the complex rules, regulations and formalities of this tax regime. The reader will find models of the various forms presently in use in the different Member States as well as other essential and useful documentation. Forms pertaining to VAT formalities implemented within the new Member States will also be provided on the internet site www.editions-delmas.com as they become available.
