LA DESCRIPTION

From Notre-Dame to the Quai Branly Museum, the monuments of Paris bear witness to all the eras the city has known and are so many landmarks for avid urban walkers. Taking to the heights, Arnaud Chicurel and Pascal Ducept provide a new perspective on these palaces, towers, arches, and prestigious squares. By seeking out unusual angles and exceptional lighting, they show us a whole new side of the City of Light we thought we knew so well. This new edition has been completed with new pictures taken by both authors.
